

HEINGSTONE PARISH COUNCIL

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Document Control
Date adopted	23 March 2023	Minute ref: 230323/60
Review date	March 2024

This website is run by Hemingstone Parish Council who are committed to making this website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

We would like as many people as possible to use our website which means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts (for advice on changing settings view www.bbc.co.uk/accessibility)
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand avoiding jargon. AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability. If there is anything you do not understand please contact us.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems that aren't listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, contact the Parish Clerk.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service \(EASS\).

What to do if you can't access parts of this website
